RxAmerica Pharmacy Cycle Payment Mailing Date Change RXBIN: 012189 ONLY

Since 2008, Caremark has consolidated and sent payment for three of its RXBINs (610415, 004336 and 610029) weekly every Wednesday. Effective Wednesday, January 13, 2010, the RxAmerica payment mailing date will also change to every Wednesday.

These January payments will synchronize with the new Wednesday mailing date. All payment mail dates will follow the standard seven-day schedule thereafter.

This means you will receive a check dated Monday, January 4, 2010, and a check dated Wednesday, January 13, 2010, beginning the normal seven-day payment cycle. Additionally, you will receive two remittance advices and 835s within this period.

The mailing date change will continue to be in accordance with prompt pay regulations, and no other exception payment mail dates will be impacted (this includes client-specific payment cycles and/or other check mail dates meeting prompt pay state-specific laws).
